

MLA Works Cited Page

Example of a Webpage and how to cite it on the Works Cited Page.

No author or editor listed.
We do have the name of the page or article, in this case:
"Financial Aid & Scholarships"

Website is:
Weber State University

No Publisher listed.
No date of creation listed.

It was located on the Web.

The date accessed was: 13 Oct. 2013.

The URL is: <http://www.weber.edu/GetIntoWeber/undergrads/ScholarshipsFinancialAid.html>

Entry for this source on the Works Cited Page would look like this:

"Financial Aid & Scholarships." Weber State University. n.p. n.d. Web. 13 Oct. 2013. < <http://www.weber.edu/GetIntoWeber/undergrads/ScholarshipsFinancialAid.html> >

In the paper when citing the source, end the quote and in parenthesis type Financial Aid like this:
"... available to you" (Financial Aid).

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying the URL: <http://www.weber.edu/GetIntoWeber/undergrads/ScholarshipsFinancialAid.html>. The page title is "Financial Aid & Scholarships". The website header features the Weber State University logo and the tagline "Worthy of Your Dreams". Navigation links include "WSU HOME", "SEARCH", "INDEX", and "CONTACT US". A secondary navigation bar lists "Admissions", "Programs", "Financial Aid & Scholarships", "Transfers", "Graduate Programs", "About WSU", and "Visit WSU". The main content area is titled "Financial Aid & Scholarships" and includes a large image of students and money. Text on the page states: "WSU provides more than $90 million in financial aid and scholarships each year. WSU is already among the most affordable universities in the West, and with many scholarship and financial aid options available WSU can make sure a college education is within your reach." It also mentions that not all scholarships are based on grades and test scores, and that students can apply for needs-based financial aid for low income students or activity-based scholarships. A "NEW UPDATES" section notes that eligibility will be recalculated if students drop from block classes. A sidebar on the left lists various scholarship and financial aid options, including "Scholarships For: Concurrent Enrollment EDGE Scholarship, Freshmen, Transfers, Current/Returning Students, Out-of-State Students, International Students, Graduate Programs Financial Aid", "Wildcat Welcome", "About Scholarships", "Wildcat Activity Scholarships", "Apply for Scholarships", and "Return to Weber". A "Contact Us" sidebar on the right provides contact information for the Financial Aid and Scholarship Office, including the address, phone, fax, email, and office hours. The footer includes the Weber State University name, location, and copyright notice.